City of Miami Police Pedaling For A Purpose

September is Leukemia & Lymphoma Awareness Month and the City of Miami Police are raising funds for cancer research. In support of the cause, Miami Police officers are gearing up for a 60-mile bike ride, to train ahead of their October ride from Miami to Orlando (260 miles). They'll be training this Thursday, outside Baptist Health's Miami Cancer Institute, joined by community partners and individuals personally impacted by blood cancers.

Members of the local media are invited and encouraged to attend.

What: Media availability with City of Miami Police officers, Miami Cancer Institute nurse, Patricia McCrink, currently undergoing lymphoma treatment, and representatives from Baptist Health South Florida & Blood Cancer United.

When: Thursday, September 4th, 2025
The actual bike ride is October 1st, 2025

Time: 11:30 AM

Where: Baptist Health Miami Cancer Institute, 8900 N Kendall Drive, Miami, FL 33177
