FIVE SUBJECTS ARRESTED IN OPERATION SWEEP

On July 16, 2025, the City of Miami's Crime Gun Intelligence Detail, in collaboration with the Gang Unit and the FBI Violent Gang Task Force, executed a comprehensive Operation Sweep across the neighborhoods of Overtown, Model City, and Little Haiti. This proactive initiative was launched in response to a troubling increase in shootings and homicides in these areas.

The operation proved to be a significant success, resulting in the recovery of four firearms and 157.8 grams of Oxycodone, alongside the arrest of five individuals. Law enforcement officers executed two warrants during the operation, marking a decisive step in the battle against crime and enhancing the safety of our community.

Locations of Operation:

- 1200 block of NW 1 PL, Miami, FL
- 1500 block of NW 71 Street, Miami, FL
- 6800 block of NW 3rd Ave, Miami, FL
- 500 block of NW 79 Street, Miami, FL
- 1500 block of NW 4 Ave, Miami, FL
- 400 block of NW 17 Street, Miami, FL

Arrests Made:

1. 36-year-old Dominick Martin
2. 27-year-old Zakia Joseph
3. 28-year-old Michael Rubelflorencio
4. 33-year-old James Williams
5. 27-year-old Joaquim Smith

The City of Miami Police Department remains dedicated to addressing the issues of gun violence and drug trafficking through strategic operations and community engagement.

The collaboration between our Crime Gun Intelligence Detail, the Gang Unit, and the FBI Violent Gang Task Force has been instrumental in making our community safer. We are committed to deterring criminal activities and reinforcing the trust and security of our residents.
